Now is the time to subscribe for newspapers and magazines.
We can save you money on any you wish to take.

A peculiar fact is that 1905 began on Sunday and will end on Sunday, and therefore has 53 Sundays. This will not occur again in 110 years.

Thousand Sticks, a paper published at Hyden, has again resumed publication, after a silence of a few weeks. A. A. Pennington, the editor, retires and H. H. Chappel takes his place.

CORRESPONDENCE.

CANOE.

Rev. N. L. Arrowood, of Canoe, aged 85 years, is very feeble. He is confined to his bed.

W. N. Arrowood on the 23rd ult. killed an opossum. Its hide was 36 inches long. It whipped two dogs and attacked the hunter, who finally succeeded in killing it, and on the same night he made 63 pounds of maple sugar.

The tide has come on Greenwell, 5 cents.

CROCKETTSVILLE.

W. H. Deaton, of Roosevelt, is on the sick list this week.

G. W. Watts and wife were in Jackson Monday on business.

John and Tom Davidson were visited Saturday by H. S. Watts and Jerry Noble, of Lost Creek.

The little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hent Sebastian, who got dangerously burned by falling on the grate some few weeks past, is improving.

Mart Henson, of Roosevelt, who has been very low for the last month, has given up to die and told where he wants to be buried.
He is highly thought of by all who know him.

Greenwell, richest flavor, 5c.

ROUSSEAU.

Mrs. Jo. Lovely is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harvey left last Sunday on return to their children in West Virginia.

Philip Gabbard, of Wolfe county, is renting land of Jacob Holbrooks on Hunting creek and will move soon.

Mrs. Mary McDaniel is very low with the grippe.

The Lord said: "Is any sick among you let him send for the elders of the church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord and the prayers of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up and if he has committed sins they shall be forgiven him."—James 5th chap. 14 and 15 verses.

Greenwell, best seller in the world, 5 cents.

GAY'S CREEK.

Some of our citizens are attending court at Jackson this week.

A. C. McIntosh has moved from Gay's Creek, and is now a citizen of Buckhorn.

Irvine Couch has just returned from the army, where he has been for the last six years.

Jacob West is building a new addition to his home which will add greatly to the appearance of the same.

The recent rise in the river failed to make a good tide, which was a great disappointment to the logging men.

We have been having a few days of very nice weather, which has been in such great contrast to what we have been having during the whole winter.

Jerry McIntosh, deputy sheriff, of Hazard, was here during the week on legal business. A. B.
Gay and Jesse M. Begley were summoned on the jury.

Jesse M. Begley has announced himself a candidate for jailor of this (Perry) county, subject to the primary August 7, 05. Mr.
Begley is a man true to his principles and a good man in every way. If nominated he would be elected, and if elected he would make a tip-top jailor.

Grandpa Elijah—"Yes, Mary, Noah took two of everything into the ark, even flies, ants, gnats and fleas."

"Did he have two dogs, grandpa?"

"Yes Mary, why? Now, grandpa, you know very well if he had two dogs, he had more than two fleas. See?"

DR. KING.

TORRENT.

Kash Cable, of Finecastle, was calling on one of the fair sex here from Saturday till Monday.

Clyde Rundfield, L. & E. agent, visited friends at Clay City from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Ashley, Jr., and Mrs. T. C. Ashley, Sr. attended the funeral of Mrs. Earl Ashley at Ridgewood Junction.

brief business trip to Jackson, while the guest of friends in our neighborhood early this week.

brass" in the local depot Monday, after several weeks leisure spent in nursing burns sustained in the recent fire here.

Mrs. Zack Ponder, Mrs. A. J.
Adams and Mrs. R. R. Adams, of Zachariah, were called to the bedside of their father, Wm. Townsend, at Patsey, who is at death's door.

Mrs. Bertha B. Ashley, aged 19 years, beloved wife of Earl Ashley, departed this life at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Alf. Jones, Ridgewood Junction, on February 24, 1905, after an illness of twenty-four days. Her life is to be compared to a beautiful flower that springs up and for a short season exhales beauty and purity and then in the full bloom of life is struck down by the reaper who chooses the fairest blossoms. Her grieving friends and relatives can only strive to live as pure and good as she, in the hope of the meeting where parting and pain is no more. She was a bride of fifteen months and well known in Jackson, where she and her husband resided for six months during the past year. The remains were interred in the Bush cemetery near here Monday. Revs.
A. J. Adams and P. R. Legg conducting the funeral ceremonies. She is survived by her husband, three brothers and a young sister.
—[Oak Hill, Ohio, papers please copy.]

Friends and relatives of the deceased wish to thank the local Order of Red Men for their kindly, practical services. They exhibited a sincere sympathy for their sorrowing brothers by taking on themselves all arrangements.

My color is red, Greenwell, 5c.

EVERSOLE.

Lee Gibson's school at this place will close Friday.

Campbell Rose is in Clark county taking care of his stock.

bill were visiting in this neighborhood last week.

is not expected to live. He has something the matter with his brain and has gone blind.

Now is the time for the farmers to begin to save their seed corn.
When they find an ear of good, fine seed corn they should save it.

The people in this part of the country are very busy rafting their logs. We expect quite a number of rafts to leave the South fork on the first tide.

Corn is worth $3 per barrel, country bacon 12½¢ per pound, fat hogs $5 per hundred, stock hogs $4 per hundred, steers 2c per pound, heifers 2c per pound.

Dillard Wilson and Miss Jane Gabbard were married at the home of Rev. M. C. Taylor last Thursday. Dillard is the youngest son of Martha Wilson, of Cow Creek, and Jane is the daughter of Mrs.
Mary Gabbard, of Eversole. We extend to the young couple our best wishes.

As the cold, bleak winter has somewhat abated and the farmers are seen once more wielding their axes in the forest. We are glad to add a few lines to your newsy and valued paper, and we hope our other correspondents will do likewise. We are always glad to read their letters from different places.

PAULINE.

HAIRY ELEPHANTS.

The skin of the elephant is practically destitute of the hairy coat which is the distinctive covering of mammals. But the extinct mammoth had an undercoat of reddish brown woolly fur, in which dark, bristly hairs were thickly set. Both wool and hair have been found with remains in the frozen soil of Siberia.
Some years since traces of this fur were discovered in the Indian elephant, and from time to time individuals occur in which the hairs are developed to such an extent as to be noticeable by casual observers.

A natural history fact has called attention to the fact that there is now a hairy elephant in the Zoological gardens at Basle. So thick is the growth that at the congress of zoologists at Berne in August, 1904, the remark was made—of course in jest—that the animal was really a mammoth. Rustum, an Indian elephant that lived in the Regent's Park gardens from 1876 to 1882, when it was presented to the Berlin gardens, was almost as hairy. The calf born in London in 1902 had a hairy coat, as may be seen from its mounted skin in the Natural History museum.—London Telegraph.

Dinner With Austrian Emperor.

The Emperor Francis Joseph has a rule of life which greatly perturbs some members of his court. He dines every day at half past 5, and he has done this since the beginning of his reign. As that hour does not suit everybody, it follows that the personages who are honored with invitations to dine with the emperor find it very difficult to muster an appetite for dinner at tea time. They suffer in silence for the most part, but it is said that a certain great lady resolved to act.

She was invited to dine with the emperor, but she sat at table and ate nothing. The kindly sovereign feared she was indisposed. No, she was quite well. Then why did she send every dish away? "Sire," she answered, "I never eat between meals." The repartee has had a success at Vienna. But the emperor still dines at half past 5, without the society of that great lady.— London Chronicle.

Why the Hermit Kingdom?

Oppressed by her neighbors for centuries and overrun with war, her people decimated, her cities, her temples and her libraries sacked and destroyed; her nobles and maidens driven off to China and her artisans to Japan, the most ambitious and unscrupulous of her subjects constantly stirred to intrigue and conspiracy by foreign powers, it is small wonder that Korea has endeavored to shut herself off from the world and, by becoming the Hermit Kingdom, has effectively barred the way to all progress.—Century.

The Wall Street Tonic.

Henry Claws, who is seventy, tells an interviewer that there is something in the Wall street life which keeps a man young in spite of years.
"Here the pulse of life beats fastest.
Wall street throbs with the daily ebb and flow of millions, infusing life into our vast enterprises. There is something in the air that stimu-lates. It is effervescent; sparkling, like champagne; lifts one up; gives one the fire of youth, energy, vim."

The Halifax Dockyard.

The great Halifax dockyard, established 150 years ago, is to be abandoned by the British admiralty.
Its closing with only a week's notice threw 300 men out of employment.
The chief reasons for the closing were the expense, its payroll amounting to $50,000 a year, and the fact that, in the opinion of the admiralty board, its maintenance was no longer necessary in the new scheme of imperial defense.

The Oldest Journal.

Kinpan, an official paper of China, is the oldest journal in the world, dating back to 911. It became a weekly in 1361, a daily in 1800 and is now a tri-daily. The regular issue is 8,000 copies. The morning edition is printed on yellow paper and is confined to trade interests. The noon issue is white and wholly official, while that at night is printed on black paper, and its contents are miscellaneous.

Picture Post Card Censors.

Picture post cards are subjected to stern censorship in some continental countries. In Russia those bearing the portrait of Tolstoi have been suppressed. Turkey forbids any post card bearing the name of Allah or Mohammed or the portrait of a Mussulman. France will not permit the designer to ridicule the corpulence of the king of Portugal.

Escaped In Time.

"Is that the way you always get off a street car?" exclaimed the policeman as a man leaped off a trolley car and barely missed bringing about a collision.

"No, sir, it isn't," was the reply,
"but there was special need for hurry in this case."

"Try a bogus nickel on the conductor?"

"No. A man asked me whether Caesar killed Brutus or Brutus killed Caesar, and I got a hump on me."

"Couldn't you have told him?"

"I could have told him that Brutus was the man who did the killing, but then the durned fool would have kept on and asked me what he did it for, and I wasn't going to stay there and admit that I didn't know!"
—Chicago Tribune.

Dr. Hunter in Luck.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter is playing in luck these days. They may have gone back on him in the Eleventh Kentucky district, but in Washington he is holding his own. The General Deficiency Appropriation Bill, reported to the House, carries an appropriation of $3,500 for the doctor's expenses in his election contest. It was the first case of the kind ever before the Appropriations Committee, and quite an argument was held as to the amount due him. The committee finally decided that as the Elections Committee had stated that Hunter had to defend himself against two contestants, he was clearly allowed the expenses for each contest. Dr. Hunter draws $2,000 from the Edwards case and $1,500 from the White case. The same bill carries $2,000 for Representative-elect Edwards and $1-999.97 for former Congressman John D. White, the other contestant.

Ask any grocer, Greenwell, 5c.

Judge Charles Swayne, of Florida, who has been on trial in the U. S. Senate on impeachment charges preferred by the House, was acquitted last Monday. This is the first trial of that kind had in the Senate since the impeachment trial of President Andrew Johnson, who was acquitted by only one vote.
